June 5, 2009

Thought for the Week

In the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years.

MEETINGS:

Boys Soccer Players: Monday's conditioning will be at the High School track instead of Valley Park - at 10AM - bring running shoes.

24-7 Club Members: June 5 will be the End of School Party at the YMCA from 7PM-10PM. There will be music, pizza, pop, swimming, games, and basketball. Y-members $1, non-members $2, 24-7club FREE.

Girls Basketball workouts with begin Monday, June 15th in the Gym. You must have a complete physical to compete.

STUDENTS:

Any students interested in receiving community service hours, the city of Hurricane is allowing students to re-paint shelters, playgrounds, and mulch Hurricane City Park June 7th (Starts 1:15 to ?), 8th (8:15-4:00), and 9th (8:15 to 4:00). Remember, if you will be a senior next year you can use these community service hours to be dismissed early from class. Even if you're not a senior it is still a great way to earn community service for National Honors Society and college scholarships. And above all else it will show that you're giving back to the community. For more information please contact Mrs. Goode. Also make sure to check your facebook over the summer for more updates from Student Council.

Putnam Wellness is sponsoring a free pool party on June 15th from 7:15AM - 9AM - information is in the office.

Students who show you their academic awards certificate may be excused five minutes early for lunch and five minutes early at the end of the day.

Girls Track members need to turn in your uniforms to Coach Posey - ASAP.

Golf tryouts will be at Sleepy Hollow on August 3rd at 1PM. Everyone must have a current physical.

Students you need to take one last look at the lost and found before the end of this week.
