

College Credit from PCTC Classes!

You can earn credit toward college while you're taking a course here at the Technical Center. The exciting thing about it is that, as a high school student, it costs you nothing and can save you a tremendous amount of money and time toward your college degree. Imagine earning half of your degree right here at PCTC! See below:

Automotive Technology

12 Hours The University of Northwestern Ohio waives 2 courses toward an associate's degree

20 Hours Marshall University - toward an associate's degree

CISCO

20 Hours All WV colleges and universities - toward an associate's degree transferable to a 85

Computer-Aided Drafting

9 Hours WVU Institute of Technology - toward an associate's or BS

Dental Assisting

30 Hours WV State Corn. & Tech. College, toward on associate's degree in Allied Health and Human Services

Dental Laboratory Technology

35 Hours Marshall University Community & Technical College

35 Hours WV State Corn. & Tech. College, toward an associate's degree

Electrical Technology

6-10 Hrs. WV University Institute of Technology

Graphic Design

32 Hours WV State Community & Technical College - toward an associate's degree in General Technology: Graphic Design Option

15 Hours Art Institute of Pittsburgh - toward an associate's degree

Licensed Practical Nursing (LPN)

36 Hours Mountain State University - toward a BSN

ProStart

16 Hours Marshall Univ. Corn. & Tech. College - toward an assoc.'s degree
2 Courses Johnson & Wales

12 Hours Mountain State, Fairmont, and WV Northern Universities

Welding Technology

24-32 Hrs. WVU/Parkersburg - toward an associate's or 85 degree

West Virginia EDGE Credit is available in the following programs:

Air Cond. & Refrig. Technology, Automotive Technology, CISCO Networking Systems, Computer-Aided Drafting, Computer Repair/A+ Certification, Electrical Technology, General Bldg. Technology, Graphic Design, Health Assisting, ProStart!